DETAILED ACTION

1. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

2. Prosecution on the merits is reopened based upon the machine assisted translation of JP-2000-283193-A obtained from the USPTO's STIC.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP-2000-283193-A to Takashi.

Takashi discloses a vehicular braking apparatus comprising an electric motor at 7, rotation detecting portion 16-17 for detecting a rotational amount of the electric motor, a drive control portion 5 for supplying a drive current to the electric motor depending on the rotational amount the electric motor; a rotation fluctuation calculating portion 3 for calculating a fluctuation amount of the rotational amount of the electric motor in combination with vibration suppressing control portion for executing a vibration suppressing control when the fluctuation amount exceeds a predetermined value.

5. Claims 2 and 4 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
